

Move Me*You move me

Rolling around my head
Shaking me blindly
Killing me kindly

Running around my heart beating me softly
Beating me every way

And I have never felt this emotion before
Ooh, I if I could stand up straight I'd take control

You move me
(in a wild and wicked way)
You move me
(like the tide on a blue, blue day)
Oh I don't know how to make myself understand
That life goes on when the rush is gone
If only I could make believe I'd let it be

But you move me

Doo doo doo doo....

You move me
(in a wild and wicked way)
You move me
(like a tide on a blue, blue day)
Oh, I don't know how to make myself understand
That life goes on when the rush is gone
If only I could make believe I'd let it be
Live a lie and let Love die and set it free

But you move me

You move me
You move me

Live a lie and let Love die and set it free

You move me
(in a wild and wicked way)
You move me
(like a tide on a blue, blue day)
You move me
(like a dream in the afterglow)

You move me
(like a song on the radio)
You move me
(like an engine on gasoline)
You move me
(like a diamond on Vaseline)

Beneath a Spielberg Sky

One day you will wake too find
The world has changed its mind and all the visions you believed in Had turned blind

Watch it as it happens on the news
Live from the camera on the missile
As it plays his pantomime

When the morning comes
 Open up your eyes
 And see it disappear forever
 Beneath a Spielberg sky

When the morning comes
 Open up your eyes
 And see it disappear forever
 Beneath a Spielberg sky

Watch the Barbie dolls and all
 The rednecks
 In their four wheel trucks
 Wage war around the world to keep Them rolling

See our buddy boys keep pulling strings
 To make our movers dance and sing
 I wonder who they think they're fooling

Chorus 2x

Beneath a Spielberg sky
 Beneath a Spielberg sky

Chorus

Words

Words that touch
 And words that heal
 Words you know were written 'bout you
 That say everything, know everything you feel

Words that save
 And words you fear
 Words that scream for every small demand
 And whisper every lullaby you hear
 To tell you stories
 And see them signed
 To shake your soul foundations, rock you gently
 Suck you in and blow your tiny mind

And words of wisdom
 And words of fools
 Words of anger, desperation, revolution
 Words as weapons, words as tools

Open up and let them reach you
 Open up and let them teach you
 Feed your mind, your heart's desire
 Welcome to a world of wonder

With words that touch
 Touch
 Touch
 Touch

Open up and let them...

With words that touch

Touch
 Touch

Touch
Touch
Touch

Strong

Prepare myself for a man to fall from grace
To tumble down to a cold and heartless place
I need to be someone
I need to be someone better

Choose the bitter pill
Offer up my sacrifice until
I can be someone
I can be someone better

After all
We all must fall

No saint or savior
Nothing better than most every man I know
Could ahve been something
Should have been someting

No shining star
No guiding light
To resist all temptation, oh
I would have been something to you
Should have been something to you
Strong, strong

I can be someone

Communication with the soul is what's required
Contamination of a life that's just grown tiered
I need to be someone
I need to be someone better

Chorus

Should have been strong enough to stay strong
Big enough to realise that I could get it all so wrong

I would have been something to you
should have been something to you
I would have been something to you
Strong, strong

Let me go

Looking round for somewhere I can lay and rest my head
I need to close my eyes and shut my mind
From all the things we said
Over and over, I've done it again
Sipping comfort from my writer's cup
The one that's constantly filled up
The one that doubled as a crutch
The one I cling to oh, so much
It eases the sadness
It drowns all the sorrow and kills
All the pain

In the name of my father

Let me go
For the love of my babies
Let me go
If I could move I'd be long gone
Let me go
If I could see straight I'd fly like a bird
On the wing

If I pray like an angel
Let me go
To stop me dance with my devils
Let me go
If I had strength to believe in
Let me go

Believe in hope for a man who needs
Nothing at all

Lokking ´round for somewhere I can lay and rest my head
I need to close my eyes and shut my mind
My mind, my mind, my mind, my mind,
My mind

Over and over
Over and over, over, over, over, over

Chorus

If I had strength to believe in
Let me go
Believe in Hope for a man who needs nothing at all

Alone

Save me, save me, save me
give this soul a helping hand
Help me, help me, help me
Help revive and ucre this hopeless man
Nothing comes from nothing
and that's exactly what I am
alone

d´you think if I
Let a little light into my safe, dark world
That what I'd see was frightening?

Sat behind the walls I'd built
To hide me from my feeling all alone
Alone
Alone

Save me, save me, save me
Help revive and cure this hopeless man
And that's exactly what I am
Alone

What if your hand
Plucked me out from obscurity
And pushed my stupid face around
To face my insecurity
Would I have the strength
To change my ways, not be alone?

Chorus

Get myself a future
Find myself a new religion
Piece my live together
Or maybe not
I could revise so I could make it so much better Better than the dream I've got

Absolution Sometime

One man carrying the weight of it all
Digging deep across his shoulders
Sell his burden to the devil below
Buys a life before he gets much older
Toasting freedom, drinking joy
Like a man with a reason to live
Feeling re-born
feeling

Absolutely wonderful
Absolutely everything
Absolutely nothing
And absolution sometimes

One man walking on a cloud in the sky
High on a new way of beeing
Burning his candles with a flame at both ends
Just to see the past he's fleeing

Don't turn around and pay your pound of a flesh back
When your future is done
Just keep dancing
Feeling

solo

Chorus

And absolution sometimes

The Refugee Song

One handful of rags to remind me
I've come so far
To be a stranger
In a stranger's land
My life, my loves are all behind me

Don't be surprised
If you only see me cry
'Till I go home

Eyes full of dust,
A heart full of nothing
A family gone
Being here a living life
Was our only sin

Just pawns in a game
Cast out to the four winds

Don't be surprised
At the distrust in my eyes

Don't be surprised
At the distrust in my eyes
'Til I go home

And now what will I do
If I see my babies
Will they recognise
Unconditional love in their father's eyes ?
What foreign tongue will form their phrases ?

Don't be surprised
If this heart inside me dies
Before I go home

Four

Count on every finger
Every little thing I'm sure of Hold them up before my eyes
See the one that holds a pure love
Place this above your heart
Upon your skin
Feel the power of the love
The strength deep within

Teach your children well
Love, respect and honesty

CHORUS :

One brings me hope in handfuls
Two who give me joy and laughter
Three to make my life complete
And four who make me happy
One to sing her songs of praise
Two and three to dance at twilight
Four who give me more and more
Four who make me happy

Count on every minute
Every moment shared together
Wrap them deep inside your heart
Keep them safe forever

So teach your parents well
Love, respect, how to be free

Bring me joy
Bring me light
Bringing hope
Bringing all I ever needed
Give me strength to keep me
Going on and going on and going on and on and on

Somebody

Somebody
Somebody to lay your head on

I've been around the world
To look for love from many souls
But at the wrong time
Searching for these vague elusive things
To keep and save
To ease my sad, sad mind

And I can belong
I can be anything I need
If only I had known
I'd face this world alone

CHORUS :
Somebody
Somebody

Lying with my face away
From every pressure
Every day you'll find me
Clinging tightly to the stronger thoughts
The clearer picture
Friendly spots around me

And I could be loved
And I could be happy
If only I had known
I'd take these steps alone

CHORUS

If there's life beyond the daily grind
A vision for a broken mind
Can't find it
Fall from heaven, fall from grace
Come shelter in my barren place
Re-find it

A search for beauty
Search for friendship
Search for meaning in it all
If only I had known
I'd walk this world alone

CHORUS (till fade)
